FILED BY SD D.C.

MOTION TO DISMISS WITHOUT PREJUDICE

- Now, comes the plaintiff, John T. Hall in the above action before the Court requesting the following action in the above matter as follows:
- The plaintiff in the above action at this point feels that due to financial obligations above and beyond his control he cannot proceed in the above action at this time.
- The plaintiff feels that by proceeding forward at this time he would be placed at a severe disadvantage without proper legal representation and advice as to how to proceed.
- The plaintiff further contends that it would be in his best interest to withdraw his complaint.
- The plaintiff respectfully prays that the Court will grant his motion to dismiss his complaint without prejudice and be allowed to refile his complaint within the time allowed by statute within the Court.
